

QUESTIONS ON LAW 15 – THE THROW-IN

1. From where should a throw-in be taken? _____
2. When is the ball in play at the taking of a throw-in? _____
3. If the ball is thrown improperly (i.e. a foul throw,) how is it penalised? _____

4. Indicate with a tick in the appropriate boxes which of the following statements describe, "foul throws"?
A ball thrown in:
 - (a) from a place other than where it went out of play
 - (b) from behind and over the head.
 - (c) with one hand
 - (d) with both feet on the touch-line
 - (e) with one foot off the ground
 - (f) with only part of the body facing the field of play
 - (g) with one foot behind the touch-line and the other twelve inches within the field of play
 - (h) a ball dropped and not thrown
5. A player correctly throws the ball into play, runs after it, and kicks it before it is touched or played by another player.
 - (a) What is the offence? _____
 - (b) How should the game be restarted? _____
6. The ball is illegally thrown but does not enter the field of play. What action should the referee take? _____
7. Before a throw-in is taken, an opponent stands approximately one metre (one yard) from the thrower and acts in a way to distract him and impede the throw.
 - (a) What action should the referee take? _____
 - (b) How should the game be restarted? _____
8. How will the game be restarted if, from a correctly taken throw-in, no other player touches the ball and it goes directly into
 - (a) the thrower's own goal? _____
 - (b) the opponent's goal? _____
9. To save time, the goalkeeper leaves his goal to take a throw-in. Is this permissible? _____
10. The whole of the ball goes over the touchline for a throw-in to the Blues. Before the throw is taken, a Blue player is struck by a Red opponent standing in his own penalty area.
 - (a) What action should the referee take against the Red player? _____
 - (b) How should the game be re-started? _____